

Nicole Humphrey, Psy.D.
5100 S Macadam, Suite 350
Portland, OR 97239
www.pdbti.org
(614) 296-2633
nhumphrey@pdbti.org

Certification/Licensure

Psy.D. – Licensed Psychologist (OR #3250)

Education

Psy.D. in Clinical Psychology, Xavier University	2019
Dissertation: “The performance of individuals with ID on the TOMM and b test”
Cincinnati, OH
Pre Doctoral Intern, Oregon State Hospital	2019
Salem, OR
M.A. in Psychology, Xavier University	2016
Cincinnati, OH
B.A. in Psychology, Criminology, and Spanish, Butler University	2013
Thesis: “The impact of family context, gender, and gender meanings on the acceptance of rape myths”
Indianapolis, IN

Selected Professional Experience

Licensed Psychologist, Portland DBT Institute, Salem, OR	2021-Present
Licensed Psychologist II, Oregon State Hospital, Salem, OR	2020-2021
Postdoctoral Resident, Oregon State Hospital, Salem, OR	2019-2020
Clinical Intern, Oregon State Hospital, Salem, OR	2018-2019
Psychology Extern, Summit Behavioral Health, Cincinnati, OH	2017-2018
Psychometrician, Private Practice, Cincinnati, OH	2015-2018
Psychology Trainee, Central Clinic Community Mental Health Center, Cincinnati, OH	2016-2017
Psychology Trainee, Xavier Psychological Services Center, Cincinnati, OH	2015-2016

DBT Specific Training

Intensive Training the the DBT Prolonged Exposure Protocol for PTSD with Melanie Harned, Ph.D., and Sara Schmidt, Ph.D.	2020
DBT Comprehensive Implementation and Training Initiative (CITI) Training with Linda Dimeff, Ph.D., and Andrew White, Ph.D.	2019
One semester graduate level course in DBT taught by Nicholas Salsman, Ph.D., ABPP	2017

